Organization Mission Statement

The Boro Park Jewish Community Council (BPJCC) is dedicated to serving the needs of Boro Park and improving the quality of life for those less fortunate. The organization stands as a buffer to poverty, providing comprehensive social services while treating individuals with compassion, integrity, and respect. The social service center is staffed by expert advocates and serves as a safety net, so as to meet the community's daily needs for sustenance, housing, health care, social support, and financial security. BPJCC programs include social service assistance; job assistance; training; placement; and a wide range of ongoing community endeavors.
